

347—1.59(22,91) Disclosure without the consent of the subject.

1.59(1) An open record is routinely disclosed without the consent of the subject.

1.59(2) To the extent allowed by law, disclosure of a confidential record may occur without the consent of the subject. Following are instances where disclosure, if lawful, will generally occur without consent of the subject and usually without notice:

- a.* For a routine use as described in rule 347—1.60(22,91) or in the notice for a particular record system.
- b.* To another governmental agency or to an instrumentality of any governmental jurisdiction within or under the control of the United States for a civil or criminal law enforcement activity if the activity is authorized by law, and if an authorized representative of the government agency or instrumentality has submitted a written request to the agency specifying the record desired and the law enforcement activity for which the record is sought.
- c.* To a recipient who has provided the agency with advance written assurance that the record will be used solely as a statistical research or reporting record; provided, that the record is transferred in a form that does not identify the subject.
- d.* To an individual pursuant to a showing of compelling circumstances affecting the health or safety of any individual if a notice of the disclosure is transmitted to the last known address of the subject.
- e.* To the legislative fiscal bureau under Iowa Code section 2.52.
- f.* In response to a court order or subpoena.
- g.* Disclosures in the course of employee disciplinary proceedings.
- h.* To the citizens' aide under Iowa Code section 601G.9(3) as amended by 1988 Iowa Acts, chapter 1247.
